

Announcing Blackfoot Events

Following the overwhelming success of the first webinar in the Blackfoot Winter 2014 event series, we are delighted to announce the following events through February, March and April 2014.

2014 An information odyssey webinar

10th Feb 2014, at your desk

In this 45 minute webinar, Matthew Tyler will review a decade of PCI DSS from 1.0 to 3.0, explore where we are today and what the emerging trends are, concluding with a glimpse into the future of information security. To register for this free event visit: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/2014-an-information-odyssey-webinar-tickets-10398354759>

Data privacy web seminar

10th March 2014, at your desk

In this 45 minute webinar, Matthew Tyler will review explain the background and true intent of the regulation. To review the full agenda and register for this free event visit:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/data-privacy-web-seminar-tickets-10398260477>

Cyber risk & cyber threat event

30th April 2014, London

In this afternoon briefing expert presentations will examine the Cyber Risk and Cyber Threat landscape and will help attendees understand what this means and what to do about it. To review the full agenda and register for this free event visit: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/cyber-risk-afternoon-briefing-tickets-10291495139>

Where can I learn more about Cornucopia?

Cornucopia is a game to assist secure software development. It helps software teams identify website security requirements based on the ideas and game rules of Microsoft's open source elevation of privilege card game. To learn more about cornucopia and to request a set of playing cards visit <http://blackfootuk.com/cornucopia/>

Where can I play Cornucopia?

The Blackfoot Security card game - 5th February 2014, IBM Southbank, London
To promote the use of Cornucopia as a secure software development tool, Colin Watson will be explaining how he gamified a somewhat dry list of web security requirements to help developers identify threats. The 5th February gamifiers event will also provide an opportunity for attendees to use the card game. To register for this free event visit <http://www.meetup.com/gamifiers/events/159158532/>

